Senselessness of Moose Editors

Bull moose papers still are insisting clamorously that Schrank probably was "inspired" to his nefarious act by criticisms of Theodore Roosevelt in a New York democratic paper and other publications opposed to the third term. Those who write such stuff must be devoid not only of all sense of decency and fitness, but of any sense of humor as well. If every prominent man who is sharply and severely criticised, to say nothing of being made the subject of venomous and vindictive attack, were thereby placed in peril of his life from fanatics and cranks, the death rate among the opponents of the bull moose should have been enormous.

Among the epithets applied by Roosevelt to many honored gentlemen and high officials who insisted on remaining in the republican party are "Thieves," "Liars," "Scoundrels," "Malefactors," "Puzzle-balls," and "Crooks." Even the president of the United States has not been spared if vituperation were a compelling cause for the assassination of its subject nearly all of the opponents of Roosevelt and Johnson would now be dead at the hands of cranked assassins. Yet, in spite of the reckless and slanderous bitterness of the assaults of Roosevelt and Johnson on the characters of many men in public life, including governors of states and others who supported Roosevelt in his unsuccessful attempt to win the republican nomination but refused to bolt the party with him, none has been made the victim of attempted assassination.

If the bull moose editors are not ashamed of their senseless porosity in attempting to inflame the public mind against all critics of their political idol by such contemptibly mendacious means, they must be beyond all sense of shame.

There never was a public man, running for any public office of any importance, municipal, state or national, who was not severely criticised by the opposition. It would not be desirable that any man in such a position should be spared criticism. Assuredly, abuse and ill-temper, such as Roosevelt and Johnson both have heaped upon all who ventured to oppose them politically, is deplorable, but there is no evidence that even that has any marked influence on the minds of homicidally inclined maniacs.

The senselessness of some of the moose editors would be funny if it were not so contemptible.

Stand Pat on Protection

Governor Wilson sounded no strong note until recently on the tariff question. In his memorable speech of acceptance of the democratic nomination he evaded it. But in his journeyings which have been as much (if not more) to learn popular sentiment as to inform the voters as to his own attitude he has discovered that the people are thinking deeply of tariff matters and interested in tariff discussions. This, as he should know, is because the republicans have made and kept the tariff an issue instead of evading it, knowing that the welfare of the people is bound up with it. That is why Governor Wilson is compelled to talk about it. The republican party stands pat, not on the tariff, as he asserted, for it has revised the tariff time and again, but on protection. It is its purpose and policy to keep the tariff fully protective—a policy which is assailed by the party which placed Wilson at the head of its ticket. If Dr. Wilson does not see this he is blind to the truth and unfit leader. But we are of the opinion that he does see it, in which case he is something else. But whether one or the other he must be less than admirable in the minds of the people whom he addresses himself and know better than he talks.

Significant Silence

There are several democratic newspapers in the state which are not supporting the candidacy of Key Pittman, the democratic candidate for United States senator. Prominent among them is the leading party organ in Nevada, the esteemed Reno Journal, which is firm in its advocacy

For the hair to be beautiful it must be healthy. Falling hair does not necessarily mean the presence of germs, for it is sometimes caused by lack of vitality in the hair bulbs. Whatever the cause will prove a remedy. It will invigorate the hair bulbs and cure any disease of the scalp. It should be used when you first notice a few hairs coming out. There's nothing its equal for removing dandruff.

of the democratic standard bearer, but is singularly silent upon Pittman's aspirations. Why?

Perhaps the Journal is prompted by a peculiar knowledge of the fitness of the several candidates, or is it because Mr. Pittman's anti-railroad protestations of today do not coincide with his pronounced reactionary tendencies just prior to his candidacy? Evidently the Journal had read excerpts from an article appearing in its own columns in 1907, telling of Mr. Pittman's astonishing exposure of the railroads infamous Southern Pacific back-hand charge, since it was not particularly excluded. On February 11, 1907, the Journal published the following:

Key Pittman, an attorney, and self-declared champion of the people, spoke for the railroad; he said in part: What Nevada needs is a lot of good railroads, and not cheap ones. The present railroad rates are cheap enough, let us not lower them. Do not prepare your railroad bills with radical provisions. The state is treated all right by the lines which are doing business today, and we should give them another chance.

Such a reactionary certainty is not fit to represent Nevada.
